

❄️ SPECIAL ONE-TIME ONLY EVENT ❄️
Come Tour the Glassman House
Dec 9th and Dec 16th anytime between 1 and 8pm!

Every year, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Glassman open their spectacularly decorated Clinton Township home to the public during the holidays to benefit a local charity. Voices For Charity is honored to announce that they have been selected as the Glassman House 2007 charity.

Karolee Glassman works for many months in the fall setting up the thousands of decorations and four holiday villages throughout her home in preparation for the two afternoons in December, when the public is able to enjoy a leisurely tour through her home. Guests are invited to make a donation to the featured charity, which this year is VFC.

Voices for Charity is the first to bring live musical performances to the Glassman House to add to the ambiance and holiday spirit. Performers include Julie and Sara Stevenson, Rich McIntyre, the Chordhouse Steps, Good News Home Singers and Bell Choir, and VFC Carolers. Musicians will be performing for approximately 30 to 40 minutes within designated times during the house tour (see schedule below.) Additional attractions include a gift basket raffle and handcrafted jewelry sale.

Performance Schedule

Time Slots	Dec. 9 th	Dec. 16 th
1:00 - 2:30	Julie & Sara Stevenson piano/violin (1:30pm start)	Rich McIntyre & Margaret Bauman piano duet (2pm start)

The holiday open house features 12 Christmas trees (including an upside down Christmas tree!), a Hanukkah Room, and a number of holiday collections including Lladro, Lenox, Swarovski crystal, Disney and Department 56. Mrs. Glassman artfully decorates each room with a specific theme to create a unique holiday sensation in each space. The whole family will enjoy the music, festivities, lights and treasures, from a 12 foot Menorah to an Italian nativity scene, to dolls and snowmen, wooden carvings, holiday flowers and garland.

Bring friends and family to this fun and festive holiday event!
